New and forthcoming Books

A POLITICAL AND CULTURAL HISTORY OF MODERN EUROPE. VOL. II

by Carlton J. H. Hayes

The second volume of Professor Hayes' magnificent HISTORY will be published in December. This Volume treats as an organic whole the political, social, economic, and cultural data of the history of the past century; it is extremely teachable; and it is an unusually attractive text. It contains 80 full-page illustrations, and forty new maps, especially prepared for it by Mr. T. H. Thomas, ten of which are double-page maps in four colors. Probable price $4.50

HISTORY OF LABOR IN THE UNITED STATES 1896-1932

Volumes III and IV

These two volumes continue the History of Labor begun by John R. Commons and his associates.

Volume III, Working Conditions, by Don D. Lescohier, and Labor Legislation, by Elizabeth Brandeis discusses in detail the American industrial population and conditions of labor and labor legislation during the last forty years. Probable price $5.00

Volume IV, Labor Movements, by Selig Perlman and Philip Taft, resumes the account of the development of organized labor in America at the point where it was left in Volume II. Here the labor movement is treated concretely, in a description of labor unions, from the first upward swing of the unionism of the American Federation of Labor during the McKinley-Roosevelt period, to the union activities of 1932. $4.00

READINGS IN RECENT POLITICAL PHILOSOPHY

Edited by Margaret Spahr

Here, for the first time, is a book of readings of RECENT political philosophers. It covers all the important material from the American Declaration of Independence through the writings of Brailsford and Lippmann in 1934. In order to make it possible to include so much material, the selections, in some instances, have been skilfully condensed, but not paraphrased. The introductions to each section, and the biographical sketches are excellent. This is more than a volume of readings selected at random; it is a history, in the primary sources of many nations, of the evolution of political philosophy. $3.90

NATIONAL GOVERNMENT EDITION OF AMERICAN GOVERNMENT AND POLITICS

by Charles A. Beard

For the convenience of classes devoted exclusively to the study of national government a separate text on National Government will be published in November taken from the recently revised Seventh Edition of Beard's American Government and Politics. It will contain a new Preface, the whole National Government section of the larger text, the first chapter in the second section, the Appendix, and a revised index. Probable price, $2.75

A Constitutional History of the United States

By ANDREW C. McLAUGHLIN, LL.D., Professor Emeritus of History, University of Chicago.

The only brief yet comprehensive and up-to-date book on its subject, this volume covers the constitutional history of the United States from 1750 to 1933 in a balanced, consecutive narrative. It gives special attention to the development of constitutional principles and interpretations in association with political controversy and actual conditions of society. Concrete and concise.

International Law

Revised Edition. By CHARLES G. FENWICK, Ph.D.,
Professor of Political Science, Bryn Mawr College.

A thoroughly up-to-date edition of a standard work. It touches upon practically every controversy that has arisen within recent years, revealing the legal principles involved and the basis upon which a settlement has been reached. Conspicuous features of the book are the simplicity of its language and the clarity of its discussions.

Recent Political Thought

By FRANCIS W. COKER, Ph.D., Cowles Professor of Government, Yale University.

An incisive analytical survey of the more important political theories which have been developed in recent years and which have a special significance in the present-day world, prefaced by an introductory chapter describing typical political ideas which prevailed during the first half of the 19th century. Harold J. Laski says, in the Yale Law Journal, "No other volume known to me provides so full or so exact an account of the political ideas of the last seventy-five years."

An Introduction to the Study of International Organization

Fourth Edition. By PITMAN B. POTTER, Ph.D., Professor of International Organization, Graduate Institute of International Studies, Geneva, Switzerland.

The latest revision of a standard. It is distinguished by its treatment which takes into account both the historical emergence of organized international coöperation in modern times and the relations between this phenomenon and government in other social spheres. It is comprehensive, objective, and free from dogmatism. The central interest of the study is the behavior of nations and the reasons underlying their actions.

FINANCING NEW YORK CITY

BY WILLIAM WHYTE

with a foreword by

JOSEPH D. MCGOLDRICK

Former Comptroller of New York City and at present a member of the Charter Revision Commission

THIS publication describes the financial operations of the nation's largest city through the depression years, against a background of the history of previous years and an outline of the governmental setup. It brings up to date in clear and readable style a subject of interest to all students of municipal finance and to the citizens and taxpayers of the American city.

The pamphlet is in eight parts:

- | | |
|--|-------------------------------|
| I. THE GOVERNMENTAL SETUP. | V. THE RAPID TRANSIT PROBLEM. |
| II. ANALYSIS OF THE BUDGET EXPENDITURES. | VI. THE DEPRESSION. |
| III. NEW YORK CITY'S REVENUES. | VII. THE FUTURE. |
| IV. NEW YORK CITY'S DEBTS. | VIII. RECOMMENDATIONS. |

The first five parts provide the background for an understanding of the depression history, with a description of the governmental structure, the size and nature of expenditures, the sources of revenue and the methods of raising revenue, the size and nature of the city's debts, and the financial problems connected with the operation of the rapid transit system.

Pamphlet No. 2 . . .

AND SOCIAL SCIENCE

Part six explains the decline in assessed valuations, the tax delinquency situation, and the decline in revenues that have beset the City authorities in recent years. The pamphlet then continues with a running story of the City's financial operations from the end of Mayor Walker's régime down through the 1935 budget.

Part seven looks ahead to the 1936 budget, the relief outlook, and the capital improvement program, while the story closes with recommendations for the improvement of the financial operations of New York City.

THE ANNALS

EDITED by CLARENCE N. CALLENDER, PH.D., EDWARD W. CARTER, PH.D., and CHARLES C. ROHLFING, PH.D., of the UNIVERSITY of PENNSYLVANIA

A volume of special interest to lawyers, political scientists, economists, members of civic organizations, and all others seriously interested in public affairs.

The matter of amendment and revision of constitutions is especially prominent at this time in many states. It is believed that in general, the views expressed in the present volume are representative of informed opinion on constitutional problems.
